

we love K-Love radio! It is the only station on the air we can leave on and know that the message is always hopeful and uplifting. If K-Love was taken off the air, there would be no "clean air" for my kids to listen to. I think that if more people listened to stations like K-Love there would be less violence and crime in the community. Our kids need to hear such positive programming!